David McIntyre Bio

Professor David McIntyre serves as a Professor of Practice at Southern Methodist (SMU) in the Department of Accounting where he teaches accounting information systems and auditing. Since completing his Ph.D in 2001 from the University of Kentucky, Professor McIntyre has held positions at Texas Christian University (TCU), the University of South Carolina, Clemson University, Georgia College & State University and Mercer University where he served as the Associate Dean of the Business School.

Dr. McIntyre was born in Cairo, Georgia and upon completing high school in the area, he joined the Marine Corps and subsequently enrolled at the University of Georgia majoring in accounting. After finishing a Masters degree in accounting, Professor McIntyre moved to Orlando, Florida and worked for the Fortune 500 company Sprint Telecommunications in the accounting and finance departments. While in Florida, Dr. McIntyre passed the CPA exam and has held an active license since 1995.

Professor McIntyre is an avid supporter of the accounting profession and enjoys contributing to the future of the profession. He is a long-time member of NABA and several other professional accounting organizations including the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE).