

Jazz Walker

Tax Senior Associate

Ernst & Young LLP

Jazz Walker is a senior tax associate in the Wealth and Asset Management (WAM) group at Ernst & Young LLP. Currently she is involved with the EY Dallas Black Professionals Network Board as a NABA committee Co-lead and sits on the board of NABA DFW as the Membership Lead. She loves teaching and mentoring and gives back through the Junior Achievement Program and the Big Brother Big Sister Program.

Jazz attended Clark Atlanta University where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Accounting as well as a Master of Science in Accounting. While in college she learned the importance of giving back and taking on challenges with an “I’ll find a way or make one” approach.

Jazz is the oldest of 7 siblings and grew up a military dependent which she feels helped contribute to her open-mindedness and her love for travel.
