

Malcolm Williams, CPA

Malcolm is a director at PwC and has worked with clients across multiple industries including, energy, telecommunications, technology, and manufacturing over the past 16 years. He has significant experience in securing refund opportunities for clients, and both the federal and state aspects of accounting for income taxes (ASC 740). He has also worked as a Revenue Agent for the Department of Treasury, where he gained familiarity with the practices and procedures of the Internal Revenue Service and reviewed offshore arrangements of individuals and their respective foreign financial asset disclosures. He now focuses exclusively on state and local opportunities in the income and franchise tax arena.

Malcolm holds a Bachelor of Business Administration with an emphasis in Accountancy and a Masters of Accountancy with an emphasis in Taxation from the University of Missouri. He is a CPA licensed to practice in Texas and a member of the AICPA.
