

SIMMONS SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Yolette Garcia

Assistant Dean for Diversity, Inclusion and Communication

Yolette García joined SMU's Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development in 2008 as assistant dean for external affairs and outreach. She develops strategies for communications and promotion and is also responsible for identifying and prioritizing community partnerships and projects for the school. Garcia joined SMU after a lengthy career working as a public broadcasting journalist and manager for KERA television and radio, the North Texas public broadcasting station.